

Core Values & Operating Principles

In order to build trust it is important to stick to your values. This tool helps you to become clear about what these values actually are.

Leadership

5 Minutes

Starter

My Core Value	My Operating Principles
Honesty	I do as I say I tell the truth / I do not lie I keep promises I make

Full Instructions

Use the table to write down your core values and their corresponding operating principles.

Core values: the values defined by you for you. They are not likely to change with trends or your daily mood. Some examples are achievement, loyalty, sense of justice, honesty, and reliability.

Operating principles: the observable practices and actions of your values. It is how you and others will know if you are living up to your values.