1. Look back at your "Rate My Goals" worksheet. Now that you have identified what your long-term goals are, it is time to take appropriate action towards achieving them.
2. Using this sheet, write down 2-3 short-term goals that will help you to pursue each of the long-term goals you rated as lower than a six on the "Rate My Goals" worksheet.
3. Once you have done this, think of any potential obstacles you might face when pursuing these goals and write them down.
4. Finally, consider the steps you will take to overcome these obstacles and put them into practice.
